

Photoshop Creative – Magazine from UK

By Rose Gatto

Photoshop Creative Issue 52 I bought at Barnes and Noble on 10/17/09 in South Sarasota. This large size magazine had 42 pages of tutorials, The CD contains 68 minutes of 11 video tutorial lessons, tutorial files for the lessons, 690 PS brushes, free stock images. Web addresses giving the best source for photoshop brushes, etc. Some of tutorials are :How to master the pen tool, color your old photo's, create textured poster art, etc.

Their website is www.photoshopcreative.co.uk

They also carry a years worth of activity from their magazines into a large volume that is devoted to Photoshop - Advance photography, Digital Photography, Painter, etc. They also have a variety of websites for the different topics above.

Photoshop Creative has a readers challenge: You're given 5 images (from the CD) and you can use one or more of the pictures. Your imagination is the guideline. There is no time limit. The magazine takes all submissions for a given issue and judges which one is best and honorable mention of others with their pictures. The prize is a year's subscription to Photoshop creative.

This issue showed what one can do with the curves feature on a colored picture and their were several steps to the tutorial. How to create foliage brushes if you're doing a painting in Photoshop, Color your old photo's how to's,

The World's first 3D camera was reviewed... The camera has two synchronized 3x optical zoom lenses and captures the 3D images on Fujifilm's Real Photo Processor 3D.
